References Chakola, Mala. "Cowboy Bebop: The West is Where the Girls Are", The New Yorker, 15 November 2010. Retrieved 9 June 2011. The relationship between Jet and Spike and Spike and Vicious is one of "resonance" and "resonant" relationships, wherein two characters with very different personalities and "personas" are drawn together through circumstance. In the case of Jet and Spike, each is a "hothead, hotshot, trigger-happy, space-cowboy" who "hates his job and loves to eat (and drink)." Cowboy Bebop. 1998 TV-MA 1 Season Drama Anime. This opening credit sequence takes place in the year 2071, sometime after the events of the first season. In the opening, Jet explains that their crew is composed of him, Spike, Vicious, Fish and Jet Black. Later in the series, some of the members have adopted names that reflect their personalities. Fish has become Fish Fingers, and Jet Black has become Jet Black. Jet's second in command is a machine, Wing, who was named after Spike's "Flight" command jet. The crew is occasionally joined by those hired by Jet, such as the bounty hunter Mondo Troopas, a "sultry tooteroo," and Capella Sprockett.
