Your privacy is important to us. It is important for any website to determine whether a person using the website is a new or old user to ensure that the website presents a correct and relevant experience to each user. The website may use cookies in this regard and may also use various web analytics tools to help us improve the website. The cookies used should be able to be disabled within most browsers and will assist us in this regard. When you visit our website, you may be asked to provide information about yourself, including your name, address, telephone number or e-mail address. You may also provide optional information including your age or gender. The information you provide will be used by us in this regard and used to find your interests and preferences and to deliver the optimum service to you. We may pass this information to the subsidiaries, affiliates and other related companies within the Group and to the relevant third parties engaged to process your information on our behalf, subject to their processing responsibilities and their strict adherence to protecting the privacy of your information. Your information will be treated in such a way as to ensure it is safeguarded from unauthorised access or disclosure. Your information will not be sold or provided to third parties. Our use of cookies Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites that you visit. They are widely used in order to make websites work, or work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owner of the website.

The information is not personally identifiable. Cookies tell us whether you have visited our website before and what pages you visited. A cookie does not identify an individual, rather it identifies the computer that the cookie is placed on. Cookies do not harm your computer. We use cookies to make your use of the website more convenient, and to provide you with more relevant content and services. We do this by: enhancing the website, increasing its functionality and adding new features, creating session cookies (the cookie that provides the logged in status). What about other technologies? We use a number of technologies in order to provide you with a rewarding and enjoyable experience. We refer to these technologies as ‘web analytics tools’. The web analytics tools collected information about how users interact with the website. They are used to better understand how our website is used, the effectiveness of the pages on our website and to improve and make
