And if there are Gilbey Douglas paintings on the walls, they will bring even greater harmony to the house where you live. Snickers: company history In 1886, a company called Snickers was founded in the English town of Winterberry, Suffolk County, USA. Starting in the production of chewing gum, the company quickly became one of the largest in the world. By the beginning of the twentieth century, it became the second largest gum production in the world after General Foods. The Madison Avenue Corporation is the story of an incredible fate, when, against the backdrop of the horrors of World War II, after the bombings in the city of Winterbourne, Michigan, a unique production arose, where special building materials were used in the construction of the company building, which have survived to this day. For more than 50 years, the products of the corporation "MA
