The features are intended to be what makes FIFA the most authentic and immersive football game in the series, and provide a more complete portrayal of the sport's real-life physics. "FIFA's 'HyperMotion' technology is our most significant advancement in the realism of the game since the introduction of online functionality with 'PlayStation 4'," said Peter Rauch, Producer at EA SPORTS and Executive Producer of FIFA. "We continue to make sure that FIFA remains the number one football game in the world with new features, gameplay innovations and great gameplay elements, accessible to players of every skill level." With the E-A-G-L-E, EA introduced players to the rewards of being an Ultimate Team member - the EAGLE Preseason Power 100 - a new ranking for the best players on PlayStation 4, the PlayStation 4 Elite Collection and FIFA Ultimate Team Packs. Fifa 22 Activation Code marks the year-long return of E-A-G-L-E. What's new:

- Introducing Hyper Motion Technology. A re-engineered ball control system that makes every shot harder. Master shots like on-target goals that sweep across the goal mouth towards the back post like a shot of a Laser. Every goalkeeper's save is supremely more spectacular as the ball will come in soft, making saves easier. Shots that glance off the post are easier to control. Shots that race into the far post will suddenly slow down and come to a stop, ensuring more chances of a red or yellow card sending the ball away for a corner.
- Introducing Strength and Power Challenges, Fans will now be able to master beyond-the-air skill and control the ball using footwork, misdirection and speed. They'll also have a new, faster, more contextual loadout system letting them instantly select the skills that'll help them win and build their own custom kits. They'll also need to unlock goals in a way that's more realistic - and the game is more exciting.
- A new "Peacekeeper" uses both sight and tracking to place shots. Ball that's opposite of where he saw it will create an air ball. That goes to a player with a new "Space Stealer" system called: "Stinger Flicks." A player will look and detect if the keeper is approaching. Once the ball goes into a keeper's reach, he'll catch it with both hands and it disappears. He can't stop, pass or dribble it, let alone shoot - it's out of play.
- Team Defending is active in a way that's never been done before. Foul shooting is now contextual but Goalkeeper holds are no longer connected to the ball - they're independent of the ball. Where should the goalkeeper sprint? Where should you retreat to? Regardless of the situation, when defending the goal, the Keepers are now clearly alerted to the fact that players are closing in while their tactics in general are now affected more and more by the games situation.

FIFA is one of the world's best-loved sports games. In FIFA, you take charge of your favourite teams in football. Choose from over 200 players and play your way to become the World Champion. FIFA offers dedicated player seasons and game modes. Over two months, each player will rise from the youth ranks to compete against opponents in Head-to-Head Seasons, or engage in Sim Battles in dedicated Quick Match games. FIFA is also home to Competitive Seasons. These seasons are played out over the course of a year, starting in the autumn, and end with the ultimate title - The Champions League. FIFA is home to 13 official leagues and a loyal fan base. FIFA has no equal when it comes to bringing these leagues and the fans closer together. The depth and authenticity of the game cannot be matched. The game is played on pitch-by-pitch detail. Your last match in the previous year will impact your result in this year's game. Never has a game been more realistic. The ball will behave like a real football and damage will be inflicted on players in collisions. Defending from set pieces is now a tough skill to master. "Preventing the opposition scoring" is the mantra of defensive football. Enhanced Player Intelligence

FIFA is home to the world's best player models in history - from Pele and Lillian Thuram to Ezequiel Lavezzi, Marouane Fellaini and Jamie Vardy. EA SPORTS has taken player intelligence to new heights in FIFA. Every player has a unique skill set and movement style. New to the game are player attributes, which give each player a trait. This includes things such as quickness, strength and ball control. Add to that the fundamentals the game has to offer such as dribbling, heading, and shooting, and the game is brought to life on the pitch. Pass, dribble, shoot or defend. Combine that with a new introduction to the shooting system and the only football game to create a new system of momentum to the game, and you have one of the deepest leagues ever. As you play, unlock tactics, formations and strategy cards for your new players to access. FIFA 22 brings together over 200 all-new players, 700 authentic player animations, over 600 stadiums and a new game engine that allows players to navigate the game effortlessly. Beyond the Game Let your
