You are the last defense between human life and extinction. Your name is Sentinel and you are the last of a squad of specially bred super-soldiers. Your dream is to see the human race survive through to the end of the twenty-second century. To do that, you must protect the Earth from a hostile alien invasion. The other members of your squad, a dedicated group of like-minded individuals, helped you turn your dream into reality. Now it's time to collect the reward. You have been sent to the planet Cubis, where the alien invaders have established a vast base of operations. Only you and your unique robot exoskeleton can defend the base while on patrol.
