Atomic Cleaner is one of the most powerful cleaners around. Its powerful scanner will find the most of the files and folders that you have on your computer (even some on external devices). It will quickly clean anything it finds, and it won't leave any trace of its activity. Some of the most annoying and time consuming problems you may encounter with your computer are related to junk files. They can occupy hundreds of gigabytes of disk space and they may slow down your computer a lot. Many internet sites recommend the use of powerful cleaning programs to get rid of the junk files on your computer. However, to keep your computer healthy, it is better to find and delete junk files manually. You can use our free tool Atomic Cleaner to delete all the junk files on your computer very quickly and easily
