If anyone is interested, then our project has existed for more than three years. During this time we have learned a lot and have given a lot to learn to others, but now we want to go further. We were often invited to participate in musical events, but we were not always able, and we did not always want to. We have now decided that we no longer want to stand aside from everything that can bring profit and want to put our efforts in the direction that we believe is right.
