Learning sound design with Sylenth1 (3.xx) ; intermediate level). Go through all the tutorials at your own pace as many times as you want and use . wav files (don't forget to install them as .wav files on your computer) as hints during testing. Like last time, you must be free in your actions. Remember that you must use sound on your computer, not on your computer. This requires that your computer is connected to the Internet. Thus, you can get the information you need anytime you want. As before, for testing, don't
